Internatl burglary, India's theft of Goa from Portugal violates basic rules of internatl law; Nehru's use of violence as instrument of foreign policy is possible forerunner of other aggressions elsewhere; U N, as conscience of mankind, should not countenance acts of internatl burglary, Ja 1 p 72
If business is "good"—we are told that balanced budget is coming if business is "good"; what is being done to make business better? now is time for "agonizing reappraisal" of what is happening in business, labor; Amer business must be given fullest opportunity to compete inside Amer, abroad; "profit squeeze" must be halted, then Amer can grow, natl budget can be balanced, Ja 8 p 92

Omissions, in his "state of Union" address to Cong, Pres Kennedy endeavored to present legislative programs which he sincerely believes will benefit Amer, but there was no mention of certain important facts about our natl economy; enumeration of few of these omissions, Ja 22 p 96
Alliance for Progress or chaos? will money for Alliance for Progress be used to bolster dictatorships or to secure freedom for people? Amer should seek some evidence from our prospective beneficiaries that money furnished will accomplish broad objectives of our policies, will build alliance for progress in which trade, economic development, democratic govt will thrive, Ja 29 p 96
"Back to McKinley?" contrary to what some critics of conservatism think, Pres McKinley wasn't opposed to change, in fact, William McKinley was first Pres to propose reciprocal trade agreements, study of Pres McKinley, his Admin, provide potent argument in support of Pres Kennedy's new program for tariff-cutting through comprehensive agreement with Common Market countries, F 5 p 100
"Unconscionable profits", Pres Kennedy is rightly concerned about excessive Govt stockpiles of war materials, but statement at news conf implies there has been some skulduggery; this is not subject to be dealt with by demagogic statement; wouldn't presentation of facts with specific recommendations in message to Cong have been better? F 12 p 108
Woodrow Wilson's typewriter comes home to White House, Pres Kennedy said suggestion for obtaining typewriter came from David Lawrence, F 19 p 12:2
"Where are we?" oft-repeated phrase as we seek perspective on our internatl policies; excerpts from Pres Kennedy's statement at press conf; it is not case of "war or surrender"; we have definite goals, by imaginative reorganization of our powers of communications we can transmit their true meaning to other people, F 19 p 116

LAWRENCE, DAVID—Contd.
Cong will avoid enactment of laws that can add to unemployment, curtail profits, thus helping to cause recession? Cong must face up to its responsibility, act now to prevent future recessions, Mr 19 p 120
Ignoring aggression, negotiations with USSR on disarmament are futile, we must tell Soviets that we cannot tolerate their actual aggressions; that since they will not accept internatl inspection, foolproof system of detection, we must adopt policy of self-protection, begin economic quarantine of Communist nations, Mr 26 p 132
The real "extremists", those in public office who seek to circumvent Constitution by executive order or legislative measure are real extremists in our society today; Fourteenth Amendment which has never been legally ratified is basis for most executive orders on "civil rights"; govt by executive order is govt by extremism not govt by written Constitution, Ap 2 p 108
Victory for whom? wage settlement in steel industry was defeat for cause of sound economics; unions obtained fringe benefits which will mean great increase in cost expenses; nothing has been done to tackle big problem of helping steel industry meet stiff competition at home, abroad, Ap 9 p 100
It's time to reorganize, incredible inefficiency, waste exist in executive branch of Fed Govt; Gen Manager of executive branch is needed to correct this; this executive, appointed by Pres, approved by Sen, would have power to check on efficiency of whole executive branch, Ap 16 p 124
Coercion, by forcing steel cos to rescind price rise based on economic necessity, Pres Kennedy has won Pyrrhic victory; action of Pres on steel prices points inevitably to Fed dictatorship over business; by disrupting morale of Amer industry, Pres has frustrated economic expansion, Ap 23 p 124
Usurpation, in democracies, indifference of people has too often allowed dictator to usurp power; German prof's explanation of Hitler's rise to power; warnings to citizens in quotation from "The Private Citizen and His Democracy"; by Hatton W. "What can I do?" (editorial reprinted from February 8, 1952 issue) answer to citizen's question is to keep informed on issues, express views, vote; Amer has been, is governed in major policies by wishes of people, My 14 p 116
Without conscience, representative govt can't succeed if mbrs of Cong succumb to tricks of politics, ignore principles of constitutional law to do what is popular; Constitution plainly vests in States power to describe voter qualifications, yet Cong is considering bill to fix standards of literacy for voter qualifications, My 21 p 112
Confusion, dispatches from Europe picture "Common Market" as panacea, basis for political supergovt of future, speculate on growth of de Gaulle's "third force", it's time to return to fundamental principles of alliance, clear up confusion, My 28 p 112
How "sophisticated" must we get? Pres Kennedy has asked for "sophisticated" approach to natl economic problems; if we substitute discussions of "sophisticated questions" for honest appraisal of fundamentals, we are on road to economic anarchy, Je 4 p 108
As others see us, description of impact on Europe of break in New York Stock Exchange, reprint of editorial from May 30 issue of "The London Times", Je 11 p 120
